FIVE MEN ARRESTED

The Feeling Changes at Salisbury.

GOVERNOR GOES TO THE SCENE

All is Quiet, But Trouble is Feared

And Further Tropble May Be

Charlotte, N. C., August 9.—Five men have been arrested at Sellsbury on charge of participating in the lynching of three alleged murderers of the Lyerly family. They were this afternoon taken before Judge Long and one of them. George Hall, arraigned on charge of murder. He pleaded not guilty.

The burning of the men at the Lyerly home has caused considerable excitement in the neighborhood.

One company of militia left Sellsbury today to go into camp. Two companies remain on guard.

All is quiet at Salisbury, but trouble is feared Saturday night.

The men arrested are Bud Sullobaugh. George Hall, John Cauble, Francis Cress and George Gentle, all Rowan county men save Hall, who is from Montgomery. These men were taken into court this afternoon. The hearing will probably be continued tomorrow.

Public septiment in Rowan county

Public sentiment in Rowan county in regard to the lynching is said to have undergone a great change and there is now a strong desire that the leaders of the mob be punished.

Two horses in the stable broke out, but were so badly burned they were shot. The military is still on duty guarding the jail and court house. The case of the alleged lynchers under arrest probably will not be taken up at this term of court.

George Hall, the first man arrested desires to submit to a charge of conceptracy, the maximum penalty for which is twenty years in the penitentiary. The investigation is proceeding and it is expected that many indictments will be returned.

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 9.—After addressing the yearly meeting of Friends at Guilford College today. Governor Glenn left tonight for Salisbury, where it is said he will give personal attention to the lynching investigation now in progress.

New York, Aug. 9.—Sam Strang. emember of the New York Natical League Baseball Club, who was called upon by Captain McGann of the New York team to umpire the Chicago-New York game at the Polo grounds on Tuesday, when Umpire Johnstone was excluded, today reported his action to President Harry C. Pulliam of the National League. Strang said he had awarded the game to New York by forfeit.

President Pulliam repiled in a letter that he was at a loss to understand how Strang, being a member of the New York team, should address such a communication to him. After reviewing the incidents of the forfeited game, Chicago, Aug. 9—Henry W. Hering, cashier of the Milwaukes Avenue State Hank, which closed its doors three days ago, was arrested today and will be defined ball until his comecition with the disappearance of fieldy $1,000,000 of the bank's funds is cleared un. Paul O. Stensland, president of the defunct institution. Hering the still a fugitive, and although nearly 100 detectives are still a mystery.

He was taken to the office of Chief of Police Collins and put through a thorough examination as to his knowledges of President Stensland's mismanagement of the institution. with the explanation given by Hering of his connection with the collapse of the bank and it was accordingly decided to refuse ball to Hering until the matter had been investigated.

Twenty-Five Per Cent. Receiver Fetzer reported to the Su-erior Court today that a dividend of at least twenty-five per cent probably would be declared to denositors in the bank within the next two weeks. This, it is said, will be followed by a second dividend, although the receiver tonight was not in a position to state how much of their savings the 22,000 depositors rectors of the bank today, a resolution was adopted appointing a committee to devise ways and means for apprehending President Stensland and straightening out the affairs of the bank. The directors declare that there will be found a sufficient revenue from the property, assets, etc., to pay all the depositors in full.

The Tribune today says:

Henry W. Hering, cashier of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank, looted by Paul Stensland of over $1.000,000, is in Chicago. He has not been out of Chicago since Monday morning. "You can depend upon it, if Japan were to take the Philippines Islands she would not lose a single hour making their defense so strong that we nor any other pation. she would not lose a single hour making their defense so strong that we nor any other nation could retake them. We can do nothing in the Orient with the navy working from our Pacific coast.

"Hawaii affords us little if any advantage. We have erected a few fortifications there but nothing like a naval base, and if the day comes that we lose the Philippines through our failure to take the proper precautions, we might as well give up all hopes of developing our trade with China and the Orient.

"This incident may or it may various surmises as to his whereabouts have been put forward by the police. As a matter of fact, when Hering left the city on Saturday, he simply went up the lake for a day's rest. He reached Chicago Monday morning, got on a car, and rode straight to the bank. When the car stopped on the corner, he jumped off, carrying his heavy grip. Just as he reached the edge of the sidewalk he saw a man posting the notice of the closing of the bank. Instead of ascending the steps, he back-tracked and headed down town.

"This incident may or it may and the posting of the notice on the winnot become a matter of diplomacy. Be that as it may, it emphasizes the fact picions aroused in his mind six or

Hering thought he would like a few hours to think affairs over before he jumped into the financial wreck, and he went to the home of a friend.

Hering Didn't Spegalate. M: Hering is insistent in his state-ment that he had absolutely nothing whetever to do with any speculation of the bank's funds. He swears he has not profited one penny by the Irregu-larities brought to light. He declares that Stensland's instructions were such that there was no way on their face of determining that any crooked business was going on; it was only the culmination of a number of suspicious incidents and the piling of note upon note to carry Stenslands's real estate opera-tions that finally made him morally is not likely that there will be any diplomatic development in the case.

It is believed by state department officials that the facts will be fully developed by the federal court at Valdez, which is trying the prisoners taken by the agents of the department of commerce and labor.

The opinion is still generally held in the state department that the killing of the poachers will not result in any unpleasant international compli-

This talk with Hering evidently was This talk with Hering evidently was the thing that led Stensland to make up his mind to skip. The next week he spent a lot of time in the directors' room, and in his own private office, locking the door so that he could not be interrupted.

He worked not only during the day time, but late at night. He evidently was casting up the amount he had stolen and preparing the document which was found in his safety deposity and the letter which

In the letter which his son received and which brought on the crash, he stated that in the memorandum in the box would be found a record of his indebtedness to the bank, footing up $590,000, and also a statement by Cashler Hering of a further indebtedness of $530,000, which, to quote the letter, "Hering says I owe the bank."

an estimated value of $600,000, will be deeded to the receiver by Theodors stensiand.

"I am collecting the assets of the bank, not running business enterprises," said Receiver Fetzer today.
"So the store will be closed. The $300,000 in co-operative store bonds mentioned by Cashier Hering was discovered in the bank's vaults yesterday.

Receiver Fetzer declared that the first statement of cash in hand at the bank was nearly $300,000 cash in sight. Instead there is only about $750,000. "This does not necessarily mean a loss," Mr. Fetzer explained, but there were many items carried on the bank's books as cash' that were not so in reality."

Another warrant, churging violation of the State banking laws was sworm out today for the arreste of Theodore Stensland, Vice-President of the suspended bank. the famous Santa Fe rebate case is probably closed.

Too much praise canot be accorded to Attorney General Moody in carrying this case through to a successful termination and that, too, after the adverse criticism in many journals of the refusal of the admitistration to undertake the prosecution of Paul Morton, then Secretary of the Navy and formerly head of the traffic department of the Santa Fe. The Attorney General in disagreeing with Messrs, Harmon and Judson, who had been employed by the government to make an inquiry, acted plainly with foreknowledge of the legal difficulties that attended every stop in the attempted prosecution of Mr. Morton and other officials in his peculiar case which really grew out of a long standing practice intended primarily to develop the coal industry in Colorado and New Mexico which really dil have that effect and which only became conspicuously unlawful after the pasce of the Filips law in 1902 and the conspicuously unlawful after the pas-sage of the Elkins law in 1903, and the courageous investigation and report of the facts by the Interstate Commerce Commission to the Attorney General.

Hering intends to give himself up, and is absolutely confident that in a ray abank examiner who was a mind-rader, could have foreseen the impending crash, said that part of Hering astisfaction of every one concerned that he had no part in the robbing of the Poole as he he believed to be untrue. One of the results of Hering's reappearance will be that the co-operative store, said to have furnished a channel for dissipating nearly $500,000 of the bank's funds, will be closed. Receiver John C. Fetzer said this morning that he will ask instructions of Judge Brentano on the disposition of the stock in the store.
